Mangus and a Small Following Taken In by Capt Cooper

WASHINGTON Oct 22—The following telegram from Gen Miles dated Fort Apache Ariz Oct 19 has been transmitted by Gen Howard to the war department

"A detachment under Capt Cooper Tenth cavalry has just arrived at the post having captured Mangus and his whole party consisting of Mangus two men three squaws and five children also twenty nine mules and five ponies all of which were brought in These Indians have been pursued by Lieut Johnson and others through Chihuahua (Mex) and New Mexico since September"

MILES General Commanding

A later dispatch dated San Francisco Oct [illegible] from Assist Adj Gen McKeevy says the following telegram has just been received from Gen Miles "Mangus, who was captured by Capt Cooper states that a part of his band was captured by Mexicans and never heard from afterwards This would seem to confirm other reports and gave rise to the report that Mangus himself had been killed Capt Viele commanding at Fort Apache states that he believes we have all that is left of the Mangus party"

It is learned at the war department that the Indians above referred to formed part of Geronimo's band, but separated from that warrior's command last April when he offered to surrender to Gen Crook Nothing definite was known of Mangus's movements after the separation but it was reported that he had escaped into Mexico and had been killed by Mexicans

THE JONES RIVER

Statement of the Scientist of the "Times" Alaska Expedition

NEW YORK Oct 22—William Libby Jr professor of physical geography in Princeton college and scientist of the Times Alaska expedition has arrived in New York To a Times reporter he said

"Beyond doubt no white men ever saw the Jones river or Castia lake and no white man ever stood upon the glaciers named and described or upon the Chaix hills in advance of the Times expedition I heard of this controversy when I reached Sitka and consequently am not speaking on the spur of the moment I would like to say that the river which the Sun refers to is a map river and as such is in all probability a conjecture river Occupants of a vessel at sea in Icy bay would be provided with abundance of proof, in the discoloration of the water of the existence of a river emptying in the sea at that point, and a dotted outline of a conjectured river would be a warrantable addition to a map but there is no pardon for placing there a line which means nothing else than the known and defined presence of a river If such a stream was seen it was only one of the numerous and ever changing branches of the [illegible] river by which it reaches the sea. I made an interesting and important discovery at Sitka. The coast survey of Kruger island gives three mountains at its end—an extinct volcano, Mount Edgecombe and two others which, I heard have been named on an old Russian map I camped by Mount Edgecombe and climbed to its summit and made the discovery that it is a mere parasitic cone on the side of a much larger and more ancient volcano No one has ever described the crater of the older volcano which lies between Mount Edgecombe and the other two mountains, directly to the north of it A remarkable feature about this crater is that it is five miles across in one direction and three in another making it the largest crater known in northern latitudes"

The burning question in legislation for missionary work appropriations for domestic missions was then taken up The board of managers had reduced appropriations for the current quarter 20 per cent on domestic work and 3 per cent. on the foreign Lack of money was the reason assigned Finally a resolution of sympathy with the board of managers in their financial perplexity was passed and then by a vote of 68 to [illegible] it was agreed that the appropriation for the remainder of this year should not be reduced The board of managers were ordered to restore appropriations to the old basis

A PAGE OF SECRET WAR HISTORY

LOUISVILLE Ky Oct. 22—The Times publishes an interesting column concerning the Northwestern Conspiracy an attempt of the Confederate government during the war to release Southern prisoners in the North enlist into active service Sons of Liberty and anti Lincolnists copperheads etc throughout Ohio Indiana and Illinois in a gigantic attempt to create a diversion which would relieve the pressure upon the army at the front Active operations were in charge of Judge Thomas H Hines with John Castleman as chief adviser This episode in the secret history of war times has been forced into public notice by current articles from all quarters on war topics and the details are mainly taken from papers in the hands of ex Chief Justice Hines, of Kentucky The success of the conspiracy was to have been largely dependent upon a very large class in the North who were dissatisfied with the administration The story involves a scheme to capture the only gunboats on the lakes attack Chicago release confederate prisoners at Camp Chase attack St Louis and cause a general uprising of northwestern copperheads

A CONCESSION TO THE HEBREWS

NEW YORK Oct 22—Yesterday was the closing feast of the Jewish autumn holidays and aside from that a veritable red letter day in the history of American Judaism because of its being the first Jewish holiday on which Jewish children were permitted to be absent from public schools without loss in their standing A fight was initiated some three years ago by Rabbi Brown of the Temple Gates of Hope The opinions of the greatest rabbis in the world were obtained by conservative Jews who were deeply interested in the fight and the opinions of the superintendents of public schools of the large cities of the United States were also secured The result is that the Jewish children of New York can now observe their religion without loss in standing a circular to that effect having been issued yesterday to all school principals There is great rejoicing among the Jews

AN UPRISING THREATENED

EL PASO Oct. 22. Only a few days ago there was an attempted revolutionary rising in Zacatecas The attempted rising was for the purpose of making Gen Garcia de la Cadena president but the Mexican Central railway enables the administration to send and concentrate troops at a moment's notice to almost any important point and thus a revolution must be very widespread and deep rooted to be successful. To-day thirty five of the conspirators were placed in jail at Zacatecas to be tried by courtmartial for their crime This means being stood up against an adobe wall and shot five minutes after the formality of passing sentence can be gone through with At the time of the capture twenty five horses and a lot of ammunition were obtained by federal troops The chief conspirator Gen Cadena succeeded in escaping

SPORTING NOTES.

ST LOUIS DEFEATS CHICAGO

ST LOUIS Oct 22—The fifth game of the world's championship between the Chicagos and the St. Louis Browns was a very tame affair the latter winning easily by a score of 10 to 3 The new umpire system was revived and a few close decisions [illegible] every one [illegible] umpired for Chicago [illegible] for St Louis and Kelly officiated between the pitcher's box and second base as referee Playing on both sides was very loose batting heavy and errors numerous The Chicagos [illegible] have lost confidence in them [illegible] a wretched game both at the bat [illegible] particularly distinguished [illegible] errors, the Browns scoring no less than four times on as many passed balls and once on a wild throw to third base. Williamson pitched for the Chicagos in the first inning, but was knocked completely out of the box, and Ryan occupied that position for the remainder of the game. The latter did good work for a time, but as soon as Flint began to play out he was obliged to ease up and toss the ball slowly over the plate and was therefore batted freely and hard. Burns in right field made two costly errors allowing two men to score who otherwise would have been left on bases Hudson pitched for the Browns, and did most excellent work only three hits being made to his delivery The game was called in the seventh inning on account of darkness Of the games played so far the Chicagos have won two and the Browns three Score St. Louis 10 Chicago 3

Seizure of Twenty Thousand Dollars' Worth of Opium.

A SHIP CAPTAIN KILLS A SAILOR.

Mrs. Bell's Assailants Held to Answer—Racing at the Bay District Track—A Schooner Crushed in the Ice—Etc.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 22.—Customs officers today seized $20,000 worth of opium on the steamer City of Peking The illicit drug was found in packages of merchandise consigned to Chinese firms.

From information elicited from an officer it appears that the deputy surveyor's suspicion had been aroused by the fact shown by an inspection of the manifest, that a part of the cargo had been shipped by the same man whose name appeared on the tea boxes in which opium to the value of $26,000 was seized on the 9th inst. This fact being established, Inspector Breeze, who was the chief actor in the above named seizure of the 9th was placed in charge of the cargo, with strict orders to watch the merchandise when it was landed Accordingly yesterday, when the packages under suspicion were placed on the wharf they were promptly examined and found to contain partially prepared opium, and the whole consignment, consisting of ninety packages, forty of which were marked "Lily Flour" and the remaining fifty "Dried Fish," were at once taken to the appraiser's building and more thoroughly examined. Here it was found that each package or case was marked with the letters "K C B" inclosed in a square and thirty eight contained opium to the amount of forty-eight pounds, amounting in all to about 3000 pounds, and valued at the above mentioned amount.

A SHIP CAPTAIN KILLS A SAILOR

SAN FRANCISCO Oct 22—Capt. John J. Ellis, of the British bark Buteshire, recently from Panama in ballast went on board his vessel this evening and found his crew engaged in a quarrel. Sam Collymore a negro sailor had a capstan bar raised and was advancing to attack the first mate, who stood near the captain. The latter fired a shot in the air to frighten the negro when Claymore dropped the bar and rushed on the captain with a drawn knife. When he got within a few feet of his intended victim the captain fired another shot from his revolver and killed him instantly The bullet struck him at the base of the neck on the left side, and must have severed an artery The captain delivered himself to the police immediately after the shooting, and is now in jail His story as above is corroborated by the first mate and several members of the crew The captain states that Collymore had made threats against his life, owing to being refused his discharge at this port. The matter was reported to the British consul at the time, who advised Capt. Ellis, on the first attempt of violence on the part of Collymore to shoot him. This, the captain says, is what he did, in pure self-defense

MRS BELL'S ASSAILANTS HELD TO ANSWER.

SAN FRANCISCO Oct 22.—Judge Rix to-day held for trial Thomas A. Collins and John H. Sayer charged with criminal assault on Mrs. Bell in Golden Gate park In his speech ordering the prisoners to be held Judge Rix said "Defendants stand charged with the crime of rape. So far as the case has been heard there is nothing in favor of defendants. The testimony of Mrs. Bell seems to be that of a person of fair education and intelligence and was clear complete and convincing from beginning to end. The effort to break it down by cross examination, which was long and tedious, totally failed Her testimony was corroborated in many material instances, and it stands here against defendants in full effect and unimpaired In addition to this and in support of her statements the complaining witness proved an excellent character for two years last past. She showed that she lived at Livermore and worked for different people and during the time that she was there she was deemed an honest and good woman Looking at the case as it now stands, it seems to me that the defendants committed one of the most high handed outrages ever perpetrated in San Francisco. What may be the result of the evidence as it appears in a higher court I cannot attempt to say but the case now appears quite plain. The order is that defendants be held to answer the charge of rape, and that bail be fixed in each case at $5000"

In consequence of this action of the court it is understood that no action will be taken in the matter by the grand jury

The fourth heat was won by B B, but owing to the fact that he broke some time before the finish, and galloped over the score the judges gave the heat and race to Dawn, time, 2:24.

The second race was between the pacers Sam Lewis and Elma and the trotter Blaine. The first heat was won by Sam Lewis time, 2:27. The third, fourth and fifth heats and the race were won by Blaine time 2:28¼, 2:35 and 2:31¼

THE PROHIBITION MOVEMENT.

PORTLAND, Oct. 22.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

Since you have printed several long letters on this subject I hope you can find room for a short one

The community for practical purposes, is divided into three classes. There are those who favor the liquor interest or who from indifference, desire no change They form one ring. Then there are the prohibitionists who if I understand them right wish to check the very manufacture of alcoholic drinks They form the other ring. And between the two there is a large body of moderate and fairly reasonable people who approve of the general purpose of the prohibitionists, but decline to do or say anything foolish or fanatical.

The only possibility of success which lies before the prohibitionists is in gaining the adherence and help of this third or middle class They can get it only by modifying their platform and restraining the effervescence of some of their more extreme members.

Nine-tenths of the mischief done by intoxicants may be attributed to the fact of adulteration. Let measures be taken here and elsewhere to put the statutes in force and punish those who are poisoning their fellow-beings Here is a line of work which is wholesome and practical.

Complete or approximately complete, prohibition will never come, nor is it desirable. It so happens that many of the prohibitionists belong to religious denominations which accept the bible as a rule of life and hold strong views on biblical inspiration An argumentum ad hominem may therefore be of use There is the rule, as laid down in the last chapter of Proverbs "It is not for kings to drink wine, nor for princes strong drink lest they drink and forget the law and pervert the judgment of any of the afflicted. Give strong drink unto him that is ready to perish, and wine to those that be of heavy hearts. Let him drink and forget his poverty, and remember his misery no more"

Kings and princes can take good care of themselves, but what do our prohibition friends propose to do with regard to "him that is ready to perish?" Will raisin jam or unfermented grape juice do him any good?

WAGES OF WOMEN.

In the October number of the Forum there is a "debate" on women's wages between Van Buren Denslow, statistician, sociologist and political economist, and Mrs Lillie Devereux Blake, the well known advocate of woman suffrage and of the enlargement of the sphere of woman's rights and opportunities in general. Mrs. Blake opens the discussion and closes it, dwelling in particular upon the disproportion between the wages paid to women and to men for the same service. The fact upon which she dwells need not be denied, namely, that women are paid 50 per cent. less than men for the same work. There are exceptions, indeed, but this is the rule.

This fact is usually dealt with as if it arose out of intentional discrimination against women on the part of employers, a want of a sense of justice toward women and a willingness to take advantage of their necessities, in order to make unjust gain out of their labor. But these motives will apply to employment of men as well as to employment of women. Employers on the whole will get the services they require as cheap as they can. There is a deeper cause for the disproportion of wages paid to women and men. It lies, in fact, in the intense competition of women with each other for place and employment.

Though many more avenues of employment are open to women than formerly, yet the range of occupations in which women may engage is still, comparatively, a restricted one. Hence the pressure of women upon the particular occupations in which they may engage is usually very great. For these places they constantly underbid each other, and this is the main cause of the low wages they receive as compared with the wages of men. The law is precisely the same as that which regulates the prices of all commodities.

During the last twenty five years wages of women have been greatly advanced by the opening to women of a multitude of employments from which custom formerly excluded them, and to widen the range of these employments still further is the rational method for advancing women's wages more and more. So long as women can engage in but few occupations the great number of women applying for places in those occupations will keep their wages down, but as rapidly as the list of employments which they may pursue is extended the pressure of those who seek employment in the few special occupations is relieved, and wages on the whole will tend upward. The notion that would keep woman out of any employment which she is able to pursue, on the pretense that it doesn't become her, is a survival among civilized people of the oriental custom that still insists on keeping women immured and shut up from the eye of the world, lest other men than their owners might look upon them.

THE MINES OF THE NORTHWEST

THE OREGONIAN has had in course of preparation for the last six weeks and will soon publish an elaborate review of the gold and silver mining interests of Oregon and of Washington and Idaho territories. This review is being prepared by Mr Herbert Lang, whose acquaintance with the mineral resources of the Northwest is second to that of no other person, and whose experience as a mining reporter peculiarly fits him for the task. Mr Lang has personally visited all the mining districts, and his work is the fruit of his own observation and study. The review will be an exhaustive one, extending to six or seven pages of THE OREGONIAN. It will embrace descriptions of the quartz and placer mining localities, discussions of the present condition of mining interests with statistics of production, and other useful information bearing on the subject. The aim will be to publish as concise and yet as complete a report as possible, avoiding exaggeration and unsupported statement [illegible] setting forth the reasonable possibilities of a great industrial interest.

It is believed that this review, the first full and exhaustive thing of the kind [illegible] attempted for the mines of the Northwest, will show all who may take interest in the subject that the development of a great industry is not only in the [illegible] but in fact may reasonably be expected [illegible] will show that the conditions for the [illegible] of such great [illegible] are [illegible] that the realization [illegible] no other line [illegible] at present [illegible] investment [illegible] capital in [illegible] industry, with equal promise of [illegible] The extended [illegible] argument [illegible] ment of these vast resources would be [illegible] valuable advantage to the country, stimulating greatly every other industry and activity within it. Of the issue of THE OREGONIAN containing this review a very large extra number will be published. It is only necessary to say further to those who may be interested in the subject that they might expect THE OREGONIAN, in presenting this mining review, to do it with the accuracy and thoroughness which it is accustomed to display in all its undertakings.

THE RUSSIAN JEWS

We publish elsewhere a letter from an intelligent correspondent in criticism of our article "How to Make Anarchists." In reply we say that our article is not incorrect in its statements and is not "calculated to produce inferences as erroneous as unjust," except in those minds that never can consider a public question, a political or social fact without at once warping it to a personal application. Our correspondent seems to argue that our article implies that a Russian Jew is disposed to be an anarchist because he is a Jew, while our article plainly said that it was not remarkable that a Russian Jew was disposed to be an anarchist, not because he was a Jew, but because he was an exceptionally persecuted Russian. THE OREGONIAN has more than once paid editorial tribute to the remarkable and versatile genius of the Jewish race, and its article was a recital of facts accompanied by an explanation of the exceptional and peculiar abuse of the Jews in Russia. The Russian Jews have been in proportion to their numbers, a conspicuous factor of the nihilist faction and so sincere are they that but one Jew in the whole history of nihilism turned informer. We do not blame the Russian Jew for being disposed to nihilism in Russia, for his frightful wrongs are the extenuation of his acts although his revenge or redress is not instinct with practical wisdom, but men mad with the sense of bitter burning wrongs cannot be expected to act with dispassionate judgment. THE OREGONIAN has never neglected to recognize the industry, energy and humanity of the Jewish race, whose care of their poor, when they have any, is a rebuke to ostentatious Christian denominations, and it said nothing in its article to bring the Jew into contempt; on the contrary, it offered a plea in abatement that if the Russian Jew was an anarchist it was because he was an exceptionally abused and outraged Russian. With all respect to our correspondent we do "not fail to see the essential point" why the industrious Jew is outraged by the drunken and indolent Russian, but we did not wander beyond the question in hand, which was that if the Russian Jew was ever an anarchist at home or abroad it was explained by the fact that he was an exceptionally abused and outraged Russian. This was not said in deprecation of the Russian Jew but in extenuation of his lawlessness in America, should he happen to be lawless, because he had been educated by years of oppression and outrage, to hate "the government." Our correspondent does himself injustice and THE OREGONIAN injustice, when he assumes that we are so ignorant or so unjust as to attempt to repoint vulgar prejudice and bigotry in America by direct or indirect depreciation of one of the most vital and intellectual races of the world, a race that in war, politics, finance, law, music, the stage, philosophy and philanthropy command the admiration of the intelligent world. THE OREGONIAN knows that the Jews need not take a back seat for brains, so long as the world remembers Spinoza, Rothschild, Montefiore, Jessels, Disraeli, [illegible], Heine, Meyerbeer, Mendelssohn, Rachel, Bernhardt, Braham, Auerbach and Massena.

BAPTIST ANNIVERSARIES

Convention of the North Pacific Coast—Convention of the State of Oregon—Reports—Etc.

SECOND DAY

SALEM, Or., Oct. [illegible]

The Baptist convention of the North Pacific coast resumed its session this morning after three quarters of an hour spent in devotional exercises led by Rev T G Brownson.

A number of matters pertaining to the merging of this convention into the Oregon state convention were considered until 11 o'clock when the annual sermon on home missions was preached by Rev J Q A Henry of Portland. This was a masterly effort. The theme chosen by the speaker was The effusion of the Holy Spirit the great need of the Church, and his text was from Numbers XI [illegible]. Any sketch of this able and truly eloquent sermon would do injustice. It was listened to with close attention and after its close a copy was requested for publication and distribution among the churches.

There still remaining some unsettled questions before final adjournment the convention adjourned until 4 o'clock this afternoon.

OREGON STATE CONVENTION

At 2 P M the Baptist convention of the state of Oregon assembled with Rev T G Brownson of Albany president in the chair.

A committee on enrollment of delegates reported a list of members which so nearly conforms to the list as already published as members of the Baptist convention of the North Pacific coast that a repetition is not deemed necessary. As the basis of representation is different the larger churches have larger representation and the following additional delegates appeared from Portland: T A Davey, F I Hudnot, N S Dygert, J F Hill, E G Wheeler and Mrs F G Wheeler.

The convention then elected the following officers: Rev T G Brownson, president; A W Stan[illegible] 3rd vice president; Rev C M Hill secretary and Louis Thompson treasurer.

The Sunday school work was presented by F G Wheeler of Portland in a practical talk on the present aspect of Sunday schools in Oregon which he ingeniously illustrated by an outline map on the blackboard. By this method the following Sunday schools in Oregon were reported through the several delegates:

NORTH PACIFIC COAST CONVENTION

At this point the convention of the North Pacific coast resumed its sessions and after the transaction of some incidental business closing remarks by the president and prayer by Rev A J Hunsaker adjourned sine die.

OREGON STATE CONVENTION

The evening session was devoted to the discussion of the Sunday school work.

Rev J Q A Henry presented a discourse on the subject of the conversion of children which was a thrilling exposition of the relation of the children and parents to this branch of Christian effort.

Mr F G Wheeler opened the Question Drawer and answered a large number of written questions in a [illegible] and happy manner.

THIRD DAY

SALEM, O[illegible]

The second day's session of the Oregon state convention commenced at 9 o'clock this morning. The Home Mission board of New York was represented in a report and remarks by Rev J C Baker, superintendent of missions who gave an interesting outline of the mission stations in Oregon and told of the great needs of the work in this field.

The American Baptist Publication society was then represented in speeches by F G Wheeler and Rev A D McMichael, both active workers in the field. Their reports were full of interest and enthusiasm in the work and gave figures as to the great area of destitute places visited and supplied with bibles and religious literature. A movement was started looking to the establishment of a depository for this society to be established in Portland.

The report of the mission board of this convention was read by its secretary Rev J [illegible] Henry and adopted. It outlined some important measures for the promotion of missions in destitute fields in Oregon.

The report on foreign missions as presented by Rev T G Brownson the chairman and was a [illegible]rous and terse statement of the needs of this work [illegible] suggested the [illegible] plan of systematic giving in all the churches in this state. This report was followed by remarks by Rev [illegible], Rev T [illegible] Davis, J N Fearcy, Rev C W [illegible], Rev J W Wells and Prof Crawford.

The annual sermon on [illegible] was then [illegible] by Rev T G Brownson of Albany [illegible] The Indebtedness of Christians [illegible] World for Its Conversion to Christianity. THE JEWS IN RUSSIA

[illegible], Oct [illegible]

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

Your article "How to make Anarchists," in this morning's issue, is incorrect in its statements and is calculated to produce inferences as erroneous as unjust. The Jews are not anarchists either in Russia or elsewhere. Their number among the boycotters of New York who were not citizens and few of whom could speak English, as well as among the disturbers of Chicago, was too small to be mentioned, even by that portion of the press which delights in tacking the title "Jew" wherever there is a possibility that it may be made odious. Their condition under Russian rule as pictured in your article is not exaggerated, but you fail to see the essential point in this condition. It is the industry of the Jews, their sobriety and prudence which has made them objects of hate and envy to the careless, lazy and incompetent people about them, which has gradually matured the tyranny which drives them from the trades and professions in which they soon excel through industry, sobriety and prudence. There may be revolutionists among them, men inspired with the same exalted ideas of equality and human rights which rendered the establishment of our republic a possibility, but the whole record and history of the Jewish people, ancient and modern, makes the idea of so called socialistic principles becoming their marked characteristic ridiculous. Labor is placed before them as the honorable lot of man in all their lessons and literature. Industry is the leading virtue of their code. The bond and duty between rich and poor—those who fail in obtaining a competency and those who succeed—is so clearly drawn and so justly fulfilled that there is no room between them for any feelings save those of kinship, kindness and gratitude. Respectfully yours,

D SOLIS COHEN

Cure of a Sprain

MA[illegible] CENTRE, WAYNE CO., N Y, February 28, 1885

Some years ago I badly strained my stomach picking cherries, and have suffered greatly ever since. Nothing has been so beneficial as Allcock's Plasters. They entirely cured me of that trouble. I have also been afflicted with a lame ankle but these Plasters soon enabled me to walk. I recommend them whenever I have an opportunity as I have found them very useful for over ten years. Allcock's Plasters have always done me the greatest service, and I am every day more and more convinced that no household should be without them.

NOTES

Up to last night the Appomattox table had taken in $10 15.

The famous orchid called the "baby plant" will be on exhibition in Mr Pfunder's display at the garden this afternoon and evening.

The superintendent received a small pin cushion last night which will be placed on exhibition for this afternoon and evening. It is the work of two poor blind girls.

The following are a few additional awards which were made last night: C H Tibbetts, a model yacht, diploma; H P Engels, steamboat models, silver medal; Cliff A Wass, hair work and wigs, diploma.

Mr M C Meyrelles received his medal not from Dom Pedro of Brazil, for he was never there, but for fifteen years service in the Portuguese army. For five years he was leader of the band in the Crystal palace at Oporto, Portugal.

SPECIAL EXHIBITS

BEHLOW'S

Continues the attraction at the west end and the ladies delight in making this a resting spot during the time the band is discoursing its most excellent music. We do not wonder at their disposition to pass a few moments in luxurious bower of beauty. Furs from every clime is arranged with artistic skill and the booth is a most enjoyable place to see among the many sights at the fair, now fast coming to an end. Eastern people will find Mr Behlow's, 23 Washington street, the proper place to select goods of every style in the furrier's art.

CARPETS

Before the fair closes mention of T J Colbert's display of the very latest designs in velvets, moquette, Bigelow brussels and Smith's tapestries is just and proper. These goods come direct from the Eastern markets and the close connections Mr Colbert bears with New York houses enables him to procure the most fashionable patterns. The ladies are particularly interested in the display made by this house. Added to the general goods on exhibition is an Anatolian Persian rug which is more than 150 years old and valued at $200 and has been looked upon with curiosity by all visitors to the fair. It has been in use for years and is patched and sewed in a number of places, the fringe is nearly all worn off, which gives it a very peculiar appearance. The display is well calculated to give the visitor an idea of the general well selected stock carried, and a call at Mr Colbert's warerooms will afford every one a better idea of the large and varied assortment stored conveniently for inspection. The card of this house is published on third page of this paper.

THE PORTLAND FLOURING MILLS

For the past three years these mills have carried off the leading premium at the Mechanics' fair, not because they were a purely local institution but that the committee, being competent gentlemen, judged justly and gave them the medals on the merits of the flour manufactured at the mills under the control of the company. They take the grand gold medal this year. The three mills, one at Oregon City, that at Dayton W T and the big mill below Albina, turn out collectively 1300 barrels daily which is shipped to the uttermost parts of the world. The local agency of the three mills is at Sibson, Quackenbush & Co's, Front and Ash streets, who inform us that the demands upon their various mills is so great that it taxes the mills to their utmost capacity. This is not only gratifying in a financial sense but it looks encouraging for our growing industries and furthermore gives employment to a small army of men. Their continued success and extension is desired.

THE MT HOOD STEAM LAUNDRY CO

Has an exhibit that does credit to the company. They show shirts, collars and cuffs, ladies and children's dresses and other goods, all equal to work done at Troy. They employ only white help and by their way of handling goods (by machinery) the goods are not injured as in the old way. They have in times past experienced some trouble in getting hands who understand the work but now have their help well organized by their efficient superintendent Mrs J A Fulton, formerly superintendent in Munger's steam laundry, Chicago. They have a plant that can be used to give employment to a large number of girls and women. By giving them work you are aiding an enterprise that will benefit Portland. The stockholders and directors include many business men of this city. Their prices are much lower than Eastern laundries. We would advise all who wish good work to give them a trial. They guarantee satisfaction.

SUGAR PINE DOOR AND LUMBER COMPANY

This enterprising firm has its mills at Grant's Pass, Oregon. They have however one of the finest and most interesting exhibits at the fair. A large handsome door is swung in a frame to the better display its beauty. In this door are panels of native oak and yellow pine with sugar pine and laurel mouldings. These four woods are found to be the most serviceable, and several highly polished boards of oak, laurel, sugar and yellow pine are displayed. The Oregon sugar pine is better adapted for turning and finishing purposes than any other, the close fine grain making capital work and susceptible of a very high polish. They have on exhibition a superior article of the light strong fruit box so much needed throughout this country. They are made entirely of the sugar pine which from its tough close grain permits of being worked very thin and consequently making very light boxes.

OREGON PICTURE FRAME MANUFACTURING CO

Scarcely six months have passed since Messrs Schweigeraert & O'Keefe, the gentlemen composing the firm, began business at 226 First street. They are practical workmen and this gave them [illegible] advantages which resulted in their building up a good trade. They have [illegible] extended the manufacture of [illegible] frames, the [illegible] process being [illegible] [illegible] strip of mould[illegible] made [illegible] formed into elegant gilt or [illegible] style at [illegible] Oregon we have made at [illegible] very doors the [illegible] They will [illegible] A [illegible] medal for [illegible] display [illegible]

TO FILL THE LEGISLATIVE VACANCY

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

Within the coming few weeks it may be [illegible] that the governor's proclamation will issue to the voters of Multnomah county calling a special election for a legislative representative to fill the vacancy of D W Taylor resigned. As this is an off year when politicians are supposed to lay on their oars it is to be hoped that the coming session will be somewhat devoted to non-partisan home rule legislation. Besides it is already settled that Taylor's successor of either party will not affect the republican majority the slightest one way or the other. The mechanics' lien law passed two years since though satisfactory in its main features is found in its practical workings this summer to need a little tinkering by way of amendment that no legislator can so well understand as a practical mechanic.

This being an off year [illegible] be asking too much of political professionals to allow us a fair field for this occasion only to fill the Taylor vacancy with a non-partisan with purpose to smooth the bearings of his lien law. This [illegible] is of too limited political importance to either party for their county committees to go to the trouble and expense of nominating each a candidate for this position in the usual mode, and both the republican and democratic county committees might without in the least compromising party fealty jointly unite upon our candidate this [illegible] or both committees [illegible] in abeyance and [illegible] the track for an independent non partisan for the object [illegible] stated. In looking around among us James M Caywood [illegible] the choice of a great [illegible] He has been favorably known and [illegible] working men [illegible] mechanic. He is a bricklayer by trade and present agent of the brick makers association in this city, conducting their sales and finances. He specially combines in his own person the business man and mechanic and is more than ordinarily qualified by experience to suggest and conduct through the legislature the amendments herein referred to. In due course of suggestions the names of other equally worthy mechanics may be mentioned for the candidacy but at present Caywood seems to be the favorite.

CHANGE OF OWNERSHIP

PORTLAND, Oct 22

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

Your information is erroneous in saying that there has been a change of ownership in the Portland & Willamette Valley railway company. The only transfer of stock was of $6000, or one twenty fifth portion of the whole, to T S Brandage and associates. Nor has a contract been signed for the construction of any portion of the railway from Elk Rock to Portland and will not be until the right of way and entrance into the city of Portland is first secured.

A MAGNIFICENT DISPLAY.

[Staver] & Walker have throughout the [exhibition] maintained the largest, most [complete] and best arranged display ever before [seen] in the city. Too much credit cannot be given [them] for their splendid exhibit of machinery and [vehicles], which includes the magnificently fin[ished] [illegible] chilled plows, Studebaker farm and [spring wagons], buggies and carriages, American [illegible] feed ensilage and fodder cutters, [illegible] J. I. Case sulky, gang and walking [plows], [illegible] churns, sulky hay rakes, seed [sowers], [illegible] Buckeye and Diamond feed mills, [illegible] hay tedders, and the celebrated J. [I. Case] [illegible] engine and Agitator separator—[illegible] machinery attracting the atten[tion] [of farmers] and threshermen, as more grain [is threshed] with the J. I. Case Agitator separa[tor] [illegible] than any other machine, while [illegible] work was done.

[illegible] feature of their display has been the [vehicle] department, which comprised a selection [of the finest] vehicles ever before seen in this city. [illegible] various vehicles may be mentioned end [springs], [illegible] and Timken-spring buggies, [illegible] phaetons, Corning jump-seat buggy and [illegible] carriage—the latest novelty in [illegible]. All this work is splendidly finished [illegible] and was the admiration of all parties [interested] in handsome buggies and carriages—[illegible]

[illegible] enterprise, ability and broad business policy [illegible] this firm have within the past few [years] [illegible] up the largest trade in the North[west] [illegible] on the Pacific coast.

[illegible] have spent much time and money in per[fecting] and adapting their machinery and vehicles [to this] trade, and now have the largest and most [complete] line in the Northwest, while all their [goods] have been specially built for this trade, are [strongly] and durably made, well finished and [illegible], and guaranteed equal or superior to any [other] made in the United States.

[They] are among the most extensive advertisers [on] the Pacific coast, and treat their customers [with] the utmost courtesy, fairness and liberality—[illegible] all goods they sell and making [illegible] under such guarantee.

[Their] business is rapidly extending and growing [illegible] largest in its line on the coast. They [have] branch houses and agencies at all [points] of importance in Oregon, Washington and [Idaho], where they carry a stock of their various [implements] and vehicles and repairs for same. In [addition] to this they have competent men con[stantly] on the road to look after the trade in per[son] and all matters prompt and careful atten[tion].

The introduction of the latest improved and best [machinery] by them has undoubtedly been of great [importance] in the opening up and development of [the] country, while the liberal terms and fair prices [given] the farmers have greatly aided their pros[perity].

The large trade they are now doing is but an [illegible] and just reward of merit, and all parties [wishing] to purchase anything in the line of farm [machinery] or vehicles will do well to call upon [Staver] & Walker, at their commodious warerooms [illegible] 213 and 215 Front street, Portland, Oregon, [or] any of their branch houses or agencies. If [illegible] convenient to call, Messrs. Staver & Walker [will be] pleased in mailing their handsomely il[lustrated] catalogues and price lists free to all ap[plicants].

It is a surprise to many to find such an extensive [business] as is represented by their display, and [such] energy and push as is evinced by their large [business].

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

BRUTAL TRAMPS.—John Tyce, a well known old settler and an industrious, hard working man, was assaulted and seriously injured a day or two since by four tramps, who should be ferreted out and severely punished. Mr. Tyce lives some four or five miles south of the city back of the Masonic cemetery, where he is engaged in charcoal burning. The other evening four tramps came by his place and asked for some supper. He took them to his house, cooked some food and gave them a meal. When they had finished eating they began throwing the dishes around and when asked to stop that one of the ruffians wanted to fight. Mr. Tyce is over 60 years of age but has been a very powerful man, and he had a struggle with the villains, in which the table was upset, dishes and lamp broken and they were finally got out of the house. One of them picked up an empty mackerel kit which had an iron hoop around the bottom and came back where Mr. Tyce was standing in his door, struck him a violent blow in the face, the hoop on the kit cutting a gash down his forehead and along side of his nose and knocking him senseless. When he came to he went to a neighbor who brought him to town and had his wound dressed. It is to be hoped that these brutal ruffians may be found and treated to what they richly deserve. These tramps probably belong to the gang who have been so numerous on street corners of late in the edge of the evening, begging for money to get something to eat. Every one who gives money to these fellows is encouraging knavery. There is no need of able men being out of work. There is work for all who wish it on railroads, and only professional tramps and bummers hang around town begging. They should not be encouraged.

TWO UNFORTUNATES.—Charles Sherwood while engaged in cutting piling for the Oregon Pacific railroad on the Santiam river Thursday met with a probably fatal accident from a falling tree. He cut a tree which lodged against another and in order to fell the lodged tree a second one was cut so as to fall across it. In falling, a third tree was struck with such force that it was torn up by the roots, striking Sherwood violently across the shoulders and spine. He was picked up unconscious and taken to camp. A physician was sent for and on arriving found the man entirely paralyzed from the hips down. His recovery is very doubtful. Five weeks ago, says the Albany Herald, Sherwood made an unfortunate stroke by which he buried his ax in the knee of a Mr. Rogers, who was working with him. Rogers is an old gentleman and it is thought he can live but a short time from the effects of the wound. Sherwood has been deeply affected at the thoughts of being the author of Rogers's accident, and now both men are in the same camp unable to be moved, with strong probability of neither recovering.

A BOGUS SMUGGLER.—For some time past a white man has been visiting different Chinese merchants in this city, making efforts to sell smuggled opium. He professes to have a large quantity of the article unstamped and says he is a relative of a customs officer on the Sound who allows him to run in the opium and endeavor to make an honest (?) dollar on it. Now one Chinese merchant here was found to have a quantity of unstamped opium in his possession a short time since and is still in trouble over the matter. His friends say that the man who sold it to him was the one who gave the snap away to the customs officials and that the business was a put up job. The white man who has been going around trying to sell opium is suspected by the Chinese of trying to put up another job of the same kind, hence he has not found any purchasers. The Chinese are not going to be fooled twice in the same manner if they know it. One merchant fired the alleged smuggler out of his store. He should be arrested and the truth ascertained about the vast amount of opium he claims to have.

UNDER INVESTIGATION.—In June last A. N. Steeves, acting as attorney for the San Francisco board of trade, obtained a judgment in the U. S. circuit court for $3963 29 and costs in favor of S. B. Welch, assignee for the creditors, against Carl Adler, of Astoria. Execution was issued and returned nulla bona, since which time by order of Judge Deady Adler has been subjected to an examination under oath concerning his property and the books kept by him are now undergoing an examination by an expert for his creditors, who wish to know the cause of his failure to pay. Adler for several years has kept a store in Astoria and last February finding his creditors were about to press him for payments, he transferred all his property to Sol Hirsch, claiming Hirsch had endorsed notes for him to the amount of over $5000 and assumed other debts for him in about the same sum. Adler is still in the store; he claims as clerk. The good faith of the transaction will be thoroughly investigated by the creditors.

KILLED BY A HORSE.—Gilbert Ladeau, of the firm of Benjamin & Ladeau, residing near Gervais, Marion county, was killed yesterday morning in his barn. It is supposed by a kick from a horse. Mr. Ladeau went out to his barn early in the morning to feed the stock. Shortly after his partner Mr. Benjamin went out to assist him and found him lying unconscious and covered with blood near a boiler used for cooking food. Assistance was summoned and the injured man carried to the house and Dr. Cauthorne, of Gervais, summoned. Mr. Ladeau died a few minutes after the doctor arrived. Examination showed that his skull was crushed in, evidently from the kick of a horse. The coroner took charge of the remains and held an inquest, the result of which has not been learned. Deceased was a native of Canada, unmarried, about 45 years of age and highly respected. He came to the state a few years ago from Jackson, Cal., and is a member of Jackson lodge I. O. O. F.

FUSS AND FEATHERS.—Yesterday William Owens, a house mover, was arrested in the police court for assault and battery on J. Wright, and Wright has been arrested in Justice Bushwiller's court on a charge of larceny preferred by Owens. The cause of all the trouble as related by Wright is that some months ago Owens went to Pendleton leaving his wife behind him. Mrs. Owens made a habit of leaving a babe with the Wrights over night to be cared for and also deposited some of her household goods there, including some pillows. Recently Owens returned and a meeting was had between him and Wright. Owens demanded the return of a pair of pillows left with Wright by Mrs. Owens, and Wright refused to give them up, claiming they had been given to him as compensation for taking care of the babe for Mrs. Owens. The result was a quarrel and the subsequent arrests. The cases will be looked into to-day.

HIGH AND LOW TENSION.—Men have been employed for several days in stringing a number of large insulator wires along First street. Many have supposed that they were a part of the system for lighting the city, but a reporter who inquired into the matter yesterday was informed that they are for lighting stores and houses by the incandescent lamps. Wires are now strung for 1000 of these lamps for domestic lighting, and two Edison dynamos are at hand to supply the electricity. Electricity is used at a low tension for lighting houses, etc., and the apparatus for this system is necessarily separate and distinct from that used for lighting streets on long circuits, which requires electricity at a high tension. The dynamos for lighting the city will be in a building devoted expressly to that purpose.

LIQUOR STORE ATTACHED.—A number of attachment suits were commenced in the state circuit court yesterday against Vincent Caravita, who for a long time has conducted a wholesale and retail liquor store at 243 First street. The first it was brought by Mrs. Fanny A. Holder, Caravita confessing judgment in her favor for $[illegible]. This is money advanced by Joseph Holder, of the Dividend saloon, and his wife to Caravita during the past year. The A. P. Hotaling company sue to recover $175 95, [illegible] Gnocchio & Co. $500, [illegible] Koslinsky & Co. $40 and Trapalle Bros. & Co. 188. These latter suits are for goods sold and delivered and there is likely more to hear from.

Y. M. C. A. ENTERTAINMENT AT TABERNACLE.—The rain last evening did not deter a large audience from attending the second entertainment in the Y. M. C. A. course held in the Tabernacle. After the instrumental concert a practical Talk on Alcoholism was given by Dr. W. H. Watkins. The Dr. handled his subject in a [illegible] manner [illegible] many thoroughly practical points on the subject which can not fail to be of [illegible] to those present. The next in the course will take place Friday, November [illegible], and will be a [illegible] orchestra concert, practical talk and illustrated lecture on The Yellowstone, by [illegible] John Cobb.

WINS A PRIZE.—Charles W. Clarke, formerly a student at the Willamette university, Salem, but now a resident of Spokane Falls, W. T., has been awarded the first prize of $500 offered by the publishers of the Youth's Companion for a story for boys, the publication of which will be commenced in that journal about January 1. There were seven prizes awarded and the number of competitors was over 5600. The title of Mr. Clarke's story is "Klatawa," a Chinook word meaning "go." Mr. Clarke evidently has considerable "go" in the matter of writing stories for boys to carry off the first prize among so many competitors.

QUIT FOR THE WINTER.—Work on the mountain division of the Oregon Pacific railroad has ceased for the winter. Mr. Oates, who has had charge of the work, returned with his forces to Albany a few days since. He reports that a foot of snow had fallen and prospects seemed favorable for more, so not wishing to spend the winter in the Cascades they concluded to come down to the valley. Just before leaving a charge of 317 boxes of giant powder was exploded, shaking up a rock point in fine style. Work will be resumed as soon as spring has climbed to the peaks of the Cascades.

COUNTY CLERKS NOTIFIED.—Fourteen of the twenty seven counties in the state have thus far returned their assessment rolls to the office of the secretary of state. In order to enable the board of commissioners appointed to levy the state tax to perform their duties as required by law, Secretary Earhart yesterday notified the clerks of the counties who have thus far failed to send in their rolls to forward him without delay, with at least a summary of said rolls to furnish the board with the information necessary to enable them to make up their annual report.

ALBINA IN LUCK.—Sealed proposals have been advertised for by the Northern Pacific Terminal company for the building of a depot and shops at Albina. According to the plans and specifications the works to be constructed consist of a locomotive engine house containing twenty stalls, machine, erecting and woodworking shop 120x464 feet, paint shop 80x200 ft., boiler house 51x63 ft., transfer pit [illegible] 5[illegible], ash pit 4x84 feet, also a chimney about 150 feet high. This should add a new impetus to the growth and prosperity of our sister city.

WANTS A CONVEYANCE SET ASIDE.—Judge Stearns was engaged yesterday in hearing the argument, pro and con, on the report of the referee in the case of Geo. W. Philbrick vs. P. C. Smith and T. J. O'Connor. Philbrick has a judgment against Smith for $3000 and seeks to have a conveyance of property by Smith to O'Connor set aside, in order that the property can be levied upon to satisfy the judgment. A decision has not yet been rendered.

FLOUR FOR CHINA.—The bark Edward Kidder, which is to sail for Hong Kong about the 1st of November, will take 150 tons of flour. Her cargo of lumber is nearly completed and she will probably have a full complement of Chinese passengers 'tween decks. It looks as if the "teeming millions" of China should furnish a market for large quantities of flour, but it is doubtful if they ever learn to consume much of the article, as rice is so much cheaper there and answers the same purpose. The greater portion of flour by far sent over there is consumed by white people living there.

WORK AT THE CASCADES LOCKS.—About 300 men are now employed under direction of Capt. Powell at the Cascades locks, mostly in quarrying stone preparing for the construction of wing walls and laying masonry for the upper guard gate at the [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] being completed [illegible] is being [illegible] at the lower entrance [illegible] Bids for constructing [illegible] the canal [illegible] but the contract has not been [let].

CONVICTED [illegible].—In state circuit court [illegible] yesterday William Wood was tried and convicted by a jury [illegible] particular feature of [illegible] Wood is that he [illegible] purchased the iron when asked about it by the [illegible] detectives who afterward found it [illegible] away here [illegible] a lot of [illegible] for an arrest of judgment will be [illegible] by N. Steeves, Wood's attorney.

SUIT TO RECOVER $800.—T. A. Sutherland has commenced an action in the state circuit court against Ely Dobinson to recover $800 [illegible] interest at 10 per cent. from November [illegible] and $60 attorney's fees. According to the allegations in the complaint Dobinson borrowed $1000 from J. J. Burnett, executing his promissory note as security for the payment of the same. The note is now due and but $200 of it was ever paid. Burnett transferred it to Sutherland for a valuable consideration.

GRACE HARVEST FESTIVAL.—The ladies of Grace church, corner of Taylor and Eleventh, will give a harvest festival on Friday evening next, October 29. The chapel will be appropriately decorated with specimen grains. The entertainment promises to be of rare merit. The church will remain trimmed for the anniversary services of the Sunday following, when the society will celebrate the second year of its existence.

PUBLISHING COMPANY INCORPORATED.—Articles of incorporation of the Historical Publishing Company have been filed in the office of the county clerk by T. Monroe Hulbard, J. T. Cache, Charles F. Streeter, Joseph Sloan, W. W. Copeland, B. F. Dowell and W. H. Adams. The object is to publish a magazine in Portland. Capital stock $15,000, with shares of the value of $[illegible] each.

ROW AMONG POKER PLAYERS.—It appears there is still a poker game or two running in town. Wednesday night T. J. McGrath and Charley Taylor had a little draw with a stranger, who it appears got the best of it. Taylor and McGrath afterwards got into a row over it, Taylor using McGrath up pretty badly. It is said he knocked him down several times with a chair.

IN BROKERAGE.—A great many persons here having expressed a desire to deal in San Francisco mining stocks and Chicago wheat, Mr. Wm. J. Leahy has decided to do a brokerage business in these lines. He has the best of connections and will buy or sell orders and is in receipt of prompt advices. His office is at the Merchants' exchange rooms.

TO THE FAIR.—The Olympian will come over with a party of Vancouver people this evening, leaving that place at 5 30 o'clock. This will be the last chance to see the fair.

THE EAST SIDE.

BUILDING IMPROVEMENTS AT MOUNT TABOR.

A gentleman residing at Mount Tabor who was in the city yesterday, speaking of building improvements going on that place, says that during the present year twenty four new residences have been built, costing all the way from $400 or $500 to $8000 each, and nearly all of them over $1000. Many new barns, outhouses, fences, etc., have been built which are not included in the above. Building is still going on. Mr. Christensen, road supervisor of district No. 5, is building a handsome one and a half story residence which will cost about $1500 when completed. The exterior carpenter work is already finished and the painting has been commenced.

The foundation has been laid for a one and a half story residence to be erected for D. I. [illegible] on the north side of the base line road.

Mr. Simmonson has bought four acres of the Belmont Park property and has built a very neat cottage residence costing $1000 and a new barn which is about completed. Several other parties contemplate building early next spring.

A VICIOUS DOG.

Thursday evening as Mr. T. O. Strang was going home from his work on the new brick store, corner of Fifth and U streets, and when passing down Fifth street near the old Loryea place, he met two boys belonging there who had a large dog with them, which without the slightest warning jumped up and grabbed at Strang's throat, but caught him by the coat collar instead. As it happened the boys succeeded in pulling the vicious brute off by a strap fastened to his collar and with which they were leading him. Strang was very badly frightened and said if he had been provided with a pistol he would have shot the brute dead. The owner of the dog should see to it that he is not allowed to make another attack as it costs something to fight the law.

RECORDER'S COURT.

The examination of Dan Martin, A. Pierce and D. Penny, the boys accused of wantonly killing hogs belonging to one McCartney near Gravelly hill on Tuesday last, took place before the recorder yesterday afternoon, the deputy prosecuting attorney conducting the examination for the state, and W. M. Lock appearing for the defendants, and resulted in Penny and Martin being bound over in the sum of $50 each to appear before the grand jury and Pierce was acquitted. On the second charge, that of stealing grain sacks from Mr. Mercer, Pierce and Martin were held to appear for trial at 11 o'clock this morning. Bonds were furnished and the boys released.

NOTES.

George T. Wait and wife, of Polk county, returned home yesterday after a visit during the week with his cousin, Judge J. K. Wait, of this city. They were much astonished at the substantial improvements and rapid growth of the two Portlands since their last visit.

The members of the Oxford league in connection with the M. E. church of this city organized last winter are making arrangements to give a series of entertainments during the present season. The first of them will be what is called a "Crambo" party and is something new in this part of Oregon. It is purely of a literary character and is said to be the means of furnishing a great deal of innocent amusement. The place for holding the same and the time will shortly be announced.

GENEROUS ACKNOWLEDGEMENT.

PORTLAND, Oct. 2[illegible].

To the President and Directors of the Mechanics' Fair association of Portland—Gentlemen: We have been officially notified that at a meeting of the directors of the Mechanics' Fair association held last evening the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the grains and grasses belonging to the association now on exhibition at the Mechanics' Fair pavilion be turned over to the state board of immigration, to be placed on exhibition at the rooms of the board in this city.

Since the organization of the state board of immigration your commissioners have been the recipients of many substantial favors helpful to the work assigned them, but this last generous contribution places us under renewed but much greater obligation. While we thank you most sincerely for the valuable gift implied in the resolution, we wish to say that in the action of your board we recognize another exemplification of that well known public spirit of its members which makes them early and helpful advocates of every reasonable scheme or method for the development and [illegible] with the industrial energies of the trade and commerce of our common state. Our state may be rich in all the gifts of nature, climate, soil, water courses, water power, timber, ores and the metals of common use to the world, the prime requisites in starting and continuing developments, together with an outlet for all we produce, but these vast magazines of wealth and wealth producing elements which nature has so liberally stored up would be of little use or value except of these efforts our public spirited citizens to bring them into a condition to subserve the best interests of the people.

Once more thanking you for this testimonial of your continued favor, we remain yours truly,

CHAS. H. DODD,
President for the Board.

C. B. CARLISLE, Secretary.

Recently a section of the trestle of the railroad south of Oregon City was removed, also a large portion of overhanging rock from the bluff. In the course of a year or two the managers of the road propose to cut enough of the bluff so the road from Oregon City can be straightened and danger from falling rock put at an end.

SHIPPING INTELLIGENCE

SHIPPING NOTES.

Str Columbia reached San Francisco at 0 30 A M

The Mobile Bay was doubtless caught in the recent storms off the English coast.

'Any transatlantic steamers below?' asked an inquisitive man, popping his head into the associated press ship news office. "Yes," returned the sagacious operator, 'the Oregon—off Fire Island.' At that instant the lookout at Sandy Hook reported the chestnut bell on the bell buoy in the Swash channel as ringing violently.—N. Y. Tribune

Among recent steamship talk it was mentioned that the Oregon Development company had secured a second steamer for the Yaquina bay route If so it is doubtless the Wilmington now at San Francisco

Capt. Riches, of the British bark Miltiades has been confined to his room for the past two days. While lying in the Gulf of California the captain, his son and seven of the crew experienced sun stroke. The heat at the time was excessive the thermometer running up to 105 which means no little heat there The captain s son died on the voyage up and the captain himself was delirious and quite sick for three weeks the sick portion of the crew being disabled for a time. Capt Riches s present illness affects his head his terrible experience being the cause

Capt James P Arthur died at South Braintree Mass the 7th inst, aged 87 years. His first sea service was in the navy of Buenos Ayres In 1 28 he went second mate to California, then first officer in the ship Brookline, when he hoisted the first American flag in California. It was made of a red flannel shirt and blue dungaree with white duck for stars and stripes, and was hoisted at San Diego on the occasion of a visit to that port of a British man-of-war Later he made ten voyages to California in the ship California, and the last time he visited California was in charge of a vessel carrying part of Stevenson s regiment He will be remembered by readers of books by Richard A Dana and Wm H Thoms

It is reported that the use of the Suez canal in moving the tea crop from China to America is rapidly being abandoned for the swifter means afforded by our transcontinental railways In 1884 the bulk of the shipments were via the Suez canal In 1885 the shipments by that route to America were [illegible] pounds while San Francisco received [illegible] pounds. This year the imports by way of San Francisco have reached 20 525 280 pounds while those via the Suez canal have fallen off to 6 2 [illegible] pounds From Yokohama to New York by the canal takes sixty days by San Francisco forty nine days Insurance and freight charges are diminished and the tea being fresher is said to be better [illegible] brought by the latter route

WILLAMETTE ASSOCIATION OF CONGREGATIONAL CHURCHES

The semi annual meeting of this association was called to order by Rev G A Rockwood on board the steamer Multnomah on October 19 while en route to Washougal its regular place of assembling A prayer and praise service was profitably conducted for an hour when the first topic on the programme was taken up How to make the most of the Sunday school hour Mr A S Frank leading by reading a paper detailing some of his experiences He was followed by F W Allen T F Clapp Dr J W Givens and others Many good points were brought out and the time was most agreeably spent

Upon arriving at Washougal at 4 o clock the delegation was met by Rev J M Pamment, resident pastor and conducted to his church which was found to be most tastefully decorated with autumn leaves ferns and flowers with the word Welcome placed on the wall above the pulpit surmounted by an appropriate scripture motto

The association was called to order by Rev J F Ellis D D who made a few appropriate remarks after which the roll of churches was called and responses were made as follows

Portland—First church Rev T F Clapp Mrs C H Clapp A S Frank George H Himes

Portland—Plymouth church F W Allen

Oregon City Rev G A Rockwood Mrs F M Rockwood Mrs George Broughton Mrs W I Whitlock Miss F S Murdock

Forest Grove—Rev J F Ellis Mrs J F Ellis Miss Sarah Lyman Rev H Lyman

Corvallis—Rev George H Lee George Mercer Mrs H I Fischer

East Portland Rev Daniel Staver Miss Orpha Cranston C F Plympton

Salem—Rev J W Harris Mrs J W Harris Wm Adair Dr J A Givens

Beaver Creek Rev H A Jones

Washougal—Rev J M Pamment J E C Durgan Miss Helen Shepard

Revs I Kelsey and T F Clapp were admitted to the association as members after being favorably reported on by a committee appointed for that purpose

The association then adjourned to a hall near by where the ladies of the church and the friends in general had provided a bountiful supper for all Due respect was paid to this exercise, and the people of Washougal and vicinity were given an [illegible] evidence of the appreciation by the association of their efforts in this direction

At [illegible] o clock the association came together and listened to a paper entitled The Ideal Church by F W Allen He was followed by Miss F D Kelsey who gave a description of her experience as a teacher for the American Missionary association at Macon Ga.

Messrs A S Frank George Mercer and William Adair were appointed a committee on next meeting

Rev T F Clapp then presented the subject of [illegible] why we should study it and how He said that [illegible] was read a great deal but not studied [illegible] its as we study text books at school [illegible] to be benefitted by it We must get it [illegible] into the heart if we would be thoroughly [illegible] for every good work

The association then adjourned

On Wednesday morning October 20 the association resumed its business at [illegible] o'clock

C F Plympton of East Portland was chosen treasurer for the remainder of the year which ends in April 1887

After discussion by President Ellis and others the following resolution was adopted

Resolved That for the sake of the well being of our association and of fairness to delegates the churches within our bounds ought to and are hereby urged to pay the necessary expenses of their own delegates to the various meetings of the association

The subject of making an assessment upon the church for needed expenses of the association was discussed and it was voted that the registrar and treasurer act as a committee for that purpose until next April

Rev G H Lee then gave a paper upon Our Present Duty in Temperance Reform An earnest discussion followed which was participated in by Messrs Frank Givens Adair Ellis and others The leading thought of the paper and that brought out in the discussion was crystallized into the following resolutions

WHEREAS The evils of intemperance continue so widespread and disastrous as fairly to exceed comprehension and estimate and

WHEREAS There seems to be perplexity and uncertainty touching effective methods of dealing with the question and

WHEREAS, This is yet in the providence of God and in the minds of the people a foremost issue of the age therefore

Resolved That we are to look more directly and implicitly to God for light guidance and victory

Resolved That we recommend our opportunity and obligation as Christian citizens to control and suppress the drink system by practical civil and legal methods but regard the gospel of Jesus Christ as the most efficient remedy for intemperance and a widespread revival of true religion as the most effective measure for the abatement of the evil

Resolved That we recognize this as a time of peculiar opportunity when our churches are providentially called to this service

Rev Daniel Staver of East Portland gave a paper upon Giving as an Act of Worship This paper was requested to be published in the Pacific San Francisco Every church member should read it carefully and take its teachings to themselves and act them up

Mrs Daniel Staver who was to have given her thoughts upon How to conduct young people s meetings being unable to be present by reason of illness Mr Staver presented her subject

He was followed by Mr Harris and Mr Clapp The subject was an interesting one and many helpful thoughts resulted from the discussion

A paper on Child piety its helps and hindrances was given by Geo H Himes

At this point a recess was taken to permit the Ladies Foreign Missionary society to be held. The society was presided over by Mrs J F Ellis vice president scriptures were read by Mrs J W Harris and prayer was offered by Rev Daniel Staver Letters were read by Miss Nellie Bartlett and Mrs C C Bartlett of the Smyrna mission and a paper was read by Mrs F M Rockwood on Progress of missions in India

Little Ada Henley, aged years spoke a little [illegible] Pennies a Week after which a letter from Mrs Holbrook of Natal Africa, was read Mrs Holbrook is a beneficiary of this society and [illegible] of Rev H [illegible] Lyman of Forest Grove A paper [illegible] the Children s Morning Star [illegible] Micronesia was read by Miss Orpha Cranston

This closed the exercises of this society the [illegible] and papers were very interesting and presented a striking illustration of the work in foreign lands This closed the afternoon meeting

In the evening Rev J F Ellis D D presented a valuable paper upon the Sanctity of the Sabbath Discussion followed and the sense of the [illegible] upon the topic was embodied in the subjoined resolutions

WHEREAS The Sabbath has always been one of the most marked and most fundamental characteristics of a pure spiritual religion before the world and

WHEREAS A disregard of the Sabbath and its desecration have increased of late years to an alarming extent therefore

Resolved That there is special necessity laid upon the churches to endeavor to restore the Sabbath to that position in the gospel scheme where Jesus Christ placed it

Resolved That we urge the churches to do all in their power by precept and example to secure the observance and sanctity of the Lord s day

A paper entitled Relation of the family to the church and Sunday school was presented by Rev J W Harris He urged strongly that responsibility gave [illegible] that the salvation of children depended largely [illegible] the presence of the parents in the Sunday [illegible] that in many cases the failure [illegible] to attend was because parents failed to attend

This closed the exercises for the day

At [illegible] o clock on the [illegible] the association again convened

Messrs Clapp Staver and Frank were appointed a committee [illegible] for the next meeting, to be held in April 1887

Resolutions of thanks to the friends at Washougal for their bountiful hospitality to the O. R. & N. and Capt Pope of the steamer Multnomah for favors as to fares were unanimously passed

The following resolution was offered by President Ellis [illegible] after discussion by Messrs Lyman [illegible] Rockwood Clapp [illegible] Staver was adopted

DR. JOHN BULL'S SMITH'S TONIC SYRUP

Or CHILLS and FEVER,

AND ALL MALARIAL DISEASES.

The proprietor of this celebrated medicine justly claims for it a superiority over all remedies ever offered to the public for the SAFE, CERTAIN, SPEEDY and PERMANENT cure of Ague and Fever, or Chills and Fever, whether of short or long standing He refers to the entire Western and Southern country to bear him testimony to the truth of the assertion that in no case whatever will it fail to cure if the directions are strictly followed and carried out In a great many cases a single dose has been sufficient for a cure, and whole families have been cured by a single bottle, with a perfect restoration of the general health It is, however prudent and in every case more certain to cure, if its use is continued in smaller doses for a week or two after the disease has been checked, more especially in difficult and long-standing cases Usually this medicine will not require any aid to keep the bowels in good order Should the patient, however, require a cathartic medicine, after having taken three or four doses of the Tonic, a single dose of KENT'S VEGETABLE FAMILY PILLS will be sufficient Use no other

BLACK WOLF.

Or Black Leprosy is a disease which is considered incurable but it has yielded to the curative properties of SWIFT'S SPECIFIC now known all over the world as S S S Mrs Bailey, of West Somerville, Mass near Boston, was attacked several years ago with this hideous black eruption and was treated by the best medical talent who could only say that the disease was a species of

and consequently incurable It is impossible to describe her sufferings Her body from the crown of her head to the soles of her feet was a mass of decay masses of flesh rotting off and leaving great cavities Her fingers festered and three or four nails dropped off at one time Her limbs contracted by the fearful ulceration, and for several years she did not leave her bed Her weight was reduced from 125 to 60 lbs Perhaps some faint idea of her condition can be gleaned from the fact that three pounds of Cosmoline or ointment were used per week in dressing her sores Finally the physicians acknowledged their defeat by this Black Wolf and commended the sufferer to her all wise Creator

Her husband hearing wonderful reports of the use of SWIFT'S SPECIFIC (S S S.) prevailed on her to try it as a last resort She began its use under protest but soon found that her system was being relieved of the poison as the sores assumed a red and healthy color as though the blood was becoming pure and active Mrs Bailey continued the S S S until last February every sore was healed she discarded chair and crutches and was for the first time in twelve years a well woman Her husband Mr C A Bailey is in business at 17½ Blackstone Street Boston and will take pleasure in giving the details of this wonderful cure Send to us for Treatise on Blood and Skin Diseases, mailed free
